

Sweetheart mine, I should have written to you before and I hope you're not feeling too neglected darling. Will make up for it during the weekend.

On Wednesday I went over to see Vera and Susan cos I knew she would be alone. I make of fact she seems to be alone most evenings these days! And last night I walked over to Joan's house ostensibly to collect my mackintosh for the weekend. Ha, ha.

The weather here is simply heavenly!! Glorious blue sky and hot sunshine and I can hardly wait to get into the country with you.

I am having Sat. off & intend to arrive asap in the morning. If I get there before midday I may take a stroll to meet you. Anyway I presume we'll lunch together at the W.L. Tell them angel. all my love, Clove. x
