we had one of those nuisance Raids in the early hours this morning kept it up till

4. a.m we only had gun fire about here, before the alert went we heard an explosion a plain was going over me I thought it was a bomb but we havent heard of one there is no more news to tell you everything and everybody are just the same we go on the same old way, I hope it wont be to long before we see you again

love from us all
