

The Lat.

Sunday Tuesday

Darling mine,

This evening I walked, nay crawled out of G.W.
into a mucky night - rain, wind & pitch-dark, no buses in sight - in fact a night to spend by the fireside. But was I down-heated? No. Cos in one hand I was clutching my bag, which contains a letter from My husband. Joy of joys. The sight of that familiar postmark put me back on form once again.

We did have a happy week together didn't we? But then we always do, simply because we fit in to one another so beautifully.

The sight of you just sends me all bubbly inside, and though that feeling remains while you are here, yet I feel completely relaxed and at rest with the whole world.

There is always a faint regret that we cannot spend every single minute together, and all the time I am helping with

The household chores, part of me is wanting to be perched on the arm of your chair. Still never mind sweet one of these days we shall have a home of our own & then you'll probably get sick of
'We Two' and want lots of people around. 'S life for you.

Still want it be heaven after all these partings and snatching at brief spells of happiness? It will come, precious and till that glorious day, I'll keep counting the weeks as they go by.

Lt. Banes, eh? That name was just made for puns & idle jest, and I bet your boat will have its fill of witticisms.

All the same I'm glad to hear that he is sensitive to the health & happiness of his crew, and to that end I hope he grants plenty of leave in the future.

You're a sweet thing, honey, and I'm missing you something 'orrible and I refuse to be comforted by that "absence makes the heart go nonsense"

I'm a lucky girl this Xmas.
never had so many presents before in my life!! First your snugly dressing gown, then some lovely lace-edged handkerchieves from Joan, some lovely gloves from mum, and this evening a postal order from your mum "to treat myself".
Isn't she sweet? At the same time she sent a card for me to post on to you as she is not sure of the address, & in my letter she mentioned that she intended to send

You some baccy after Xmas? I was surprised to hear that you have not yet received any H sp.
- bit of a mystery this duty-free stunt isn't it. Hope you've got plenty of other weed in stock cos I don't want my Westy's morale to slip as I guess it will hold without you familiar old chimney.

Livewatching tomorrow.
Not so good! Still there is always a possibility that you will be off duty and may be near a phone. Lots of ifs but there's a hope eh? I know

So that if its humanly possible you'd make it darling! Mmm Mmm - I love you.

Anyway whether you phone or not I shall spend an hour or so scribbling all the latest news.

I do hope this letter will reach you before the weekend cos I'm gonna enclose some cash so that you can buy the lads a pint if you shd happen to be allowed ashore over the holiday.

But different last year eh sweet.

Ten days before and just married.
Whoops!! Happy days - and how many more of 'em to come, and as ever, see you in my dreams angel.

as so well. All things loved & to see you today with love & affection

Love you all the time ~~xxxx~~ with you before the weekend as in downer unless some get so that if you can find the time a bit of

for the paper to be allowed to be over the weekend.

But different last year the sweet

This space is reserved for Official Registration.

R LONDON, S.W.
No 6166

REGISTERED LETTER.

THIS LETTER MUST BE GIVEN TO AN OFFICER OF THE POST OFFICE TO BE REGISTERED, AND A RECEIPT OBTAINED FOR IT.

THE ADDRESS MUST BE WRITTEN ON THIS SIDE.

DE
50 L.P.R.

Official Stationery Co., Ltd.

Po/mm. L.H. WESTAWAY.

P/MX. 500221.

HM. MTB. 710. (710)

c/o G.P.O.

LONDON

FEE PAID.

Name and Address of Sender

Chas Westaway
88A Belle Grove Rd
Welling Kent

348
Compen sation.

Subject to the limitations and conditions notified in the Post Office Guide, the registration fee of 3d. covers compensation up to £5 for loss or damage of an Inland Registered Letter, and up to £2 for the entire loss of a Registered Letter sent to a place abroad. Full information is given in the Guide about registration and insurance for higher amounts.