Duggins Lane.
COVENTRY.

Clare dear,
Sorry I haven't written before but life (note capital h!) is more than somewhat hectic. But it's a grand life and I'm going to love it. Meanwhile as for the proposed weekend, at the moment the ideas not too good. a) Because I'm kept pretty busy taking every thing in. and b.) because Coventry isn't the pleasantest of places to weekend in. However, later in the town we touch Reading and I wondered if you would like to come down then. I'd love to see you again, and I've a hundred million things to tell you.
How's hez? and where is he?

and where the next leave.

You lucky people!!!

Would you please be a dear Clare and write to Cully again. I'm afraid the poor darling's awfully depressed about this CEMA venture.
Seems to think I've just fallen into a life of "love among the artists."

and I gather from what he says that he's expecting the "push" soon, meanwhile (the address is still
Lt. H.N.C. 21. N.P.F. C. M.E.F.
R.A.S.C.

I guess he won't mind so much when he knows I'm so happy and feeling very fit - but he's afraid I shall get too tied up with theatre.

Incidentally I have a chance of turning "pro" in (a subsequent production. But I feel I'm too old to monkey with the grease paint now. That itch has passed. And I think the management side of the racket offers more fun.

Please give my love to Johnnie, and tell him to write to me soon. Bless him. And tell him his prophecy was correct. I transformed the former business man into adequate "fighter protection" within the first 24 hours. Gosh, and life's good.

Well my dear, if you write me (and please do) before January 20th, you can address to Miss. Elizabeth Anderson, above address.
Otherwise it had better be c/o "Founders" as I am not yet certain of our next H.Qs.

Very much love to you & her Yours ever

Cully.

c/o Ballet Rambert,
St. Andrews Hall,
Grimby.

En route Cheltenham
Monday.

Class dancing,
A wofel scrawl - do forgive - Written in exceptionally rocky train. Could you please be kind and do small enaud for me.
I just can't find time to get to Town for love enough to get to Keith Prowse to collect for 3 seats at 13/6, as per enclosed vouchers, which they've sold for me last month. The thing was that I bought 5 seats, for a flying visit through town, and then Mrs. Godfrey's friends couldn't use their 3 seats.

You should collect £2.0.6d, please keep for the watch repairs, postage & bus fares etc. and next time you write you can send the remainder on. No hurry. no worry. But do write. Even though I am an alarmingly poor correspondent now I'm tating round the British Isles.

Honestly I'd give a heck of a lot for a long chatter with you.
Mrs. love to her and all back.
Cully's new address. Lt. H.W. Cully. RASC.
125. P.D. m.E.F.

Lots of love poppet - and many thanks.

Elizabeth

Dear dear, on the way to am still breathlessly busy, but I've only a fortnight to go now, and then for London, bright lights & a vega lunch with you — after a few days break I'm going out on a tour of public dates with the Ballet Rambert.

This isn't really a letter. merely a warning of my possible sudden descent on you. and also to ask what news of my gold watch. I'd be tremendously grateful for it.

And, how is Johnnie? He's one of the very few people I've found time to write to during the past eight weeks and the miserable dul hadn't answered! Tell him I take a poor view of such
