

Thursday.
27.9.45.

Honey man

Woo! hoo! Same Lorzan! Not so sure that it's exactly the photo to pass around among the girls. I mean to say.
Coo! I don't wonder at the Indian women running when you chased 'em. Only in their place I think I'd let you catch me in the end. Hum. Makes me think.

Very good photographs of the bungalow interior - you must have been studying your Iford. But it is not exactly home comfort eh Sweet? I'll have to do better than that with Blessington.

But it is comforting to be able to picture you in your surroundings, and the sight of the pipe and baccy on the table causes me quite a pang. Bless you, darling, the sight of them makes me almost able to feel your presence here at this moment. You know I shan't dare to let you out of my sight when you come home for fear you vanish or snuff. There's no doubt at all that I've got you under my skin.

Glad you had another day in Taou, Sweetie pie. I can remember enjoying Cyona very well, but for the life of me can't recall the story. Still you can always rely on that chap hubbick for subtle humour - and he usually uses clever incidental music to add to the fun. Good oh!

3

Thanks for the Xmas parcels doing, I really think you've been an angel in these matters.
Bye the bye I received another parcel today - cigars, tea, jelly & jam. - Scrumptious, and very useful these days.

It looks by your list as though no. 4 is missing at the moment - the one with the silk & cigars sent 24/7. I hope it has not gone astray - but being registered we have a check on it.
I will certainly let you know 14 as I receive the parcels, so's your secretary can keep her records up to date. Do you ever visit her to sit on your knee? lucky girl!

As to demob: darling. - The new scheme will be announced by the Gov. on Tuesday next & the Rd. H. will broadcast on Tuesday evening. I am sure there will be a speed-up - and I think the Navy may be well away ahead
- but I feel sure that they do not intend to scrap the present age + service idea. Only fair in my opinion. Why should chaps who are lucky enough to be in England be released sooner than 5

you chase? No! It wouldn't do.

Muriel tells me that Jim has his suitcase packed the whole time these days. You boys must be just aching to turn your faces to home, and it really is only a few weeks more.
You see - it will spring on you so suddenly you won't have time to do half the things you had planned right at the last moment. You'll just chuck your kit into a bag and fall out for the waiting boy. Oh boy!!

Life has been most hectic in the office for the past few Weeks, and tomorrow is the deadline for getting out our electricity terminations for the year (3 months notice expires 31/12). Thank heavens for that! My brain has just been in a whirl for the last few days - trying to remember everything, checking & rechecking so's not to miss a case, and putting through trunk calls & so on. We reckon we have saved the Govt. a quarter of a million pounds in liabilities for next year. And now the fun begins - trying to sort out new supplies, residual values &c &c.

I have been considering that

1 letter you drafted for Goad, honey I certainly think it a good idea to test prospects now - but I'm not sure his new branch is going to amount to much, and I'd like to get around tomorrow, and write you a considered opinion, separately. OK. Sugar?

Now that the black coat is ready for wear, I shall concentrate on getting all our odd mending done. Look at your flannels, new pockets, buttons & pressings.
& See that the tuxedo is shipshape cos by the look of your dorso in the Larzen Study you are a slim young Adonis once 18 again. We'll make the heads thru next time we wine & time and dance!

Oh, darling, the joy of having you near again. To have and to hold, to love and to cherish.
I would even agree to obey you
- even in the matter of back-scrubbing. Just try to get me out of any room where you may be in England! If you want any privacy at all you'll have to resort to Dr Johnson's 'place of meditation' (That night).

What a flirt! But then she can't help it, she's in love,

And how!

Clare

98

28.2.45

Polm. L.H. Westerd.

Plm. 500221.

Mrs. Braganza

Castal Jores.

Bombay

INDIA

